Alleged Communist Spy Leader Takes Stand

Russian-born Nathan Gregory Silvermaster, former official of the Board of Economic Warfare, is sworn in as a witness before the House Un-American Activities Committee in Washington. Silvermaster, charged as being a Communist spy by Elizabeth T. Bentley, told the committee that Mrs. Bentley is a "neurotic liar." The charges lodged against him, he said, are "false and fantastic." He later refused to tell the committee whether he is a Communist. (NEA Telephoto)

Son of Surgeon Is Located; Joined Air Force in Texas

Mother Confirms Young Man's Identity in Telephone Talk From Chicago

Chicago, Aug. 5 (AP)—The missing son of a prominent "Blue Hilly" surgeon was found yesterday in the U. S. Air Force at Lackland Field, Tex.

He is Edward F. Potts, 21, who disappeared June 2 from the University of Rochester, where he was a premedical student on the honor list. His father, Dr. Willis J. Potts of suburban Oak Park, said he had no idea why the lad left except that the youth may have worked himself into a state of complete exhaustion.

Besides his studies, young Potts, an honor student, corrected student papers and was doing research for the Atomic Energy Commission.

His father, a surgeon on the staff of Childrens Memorial Hospital, made a public plea last week for the son's return. About to undergo surgery himself, Dr. Potts wanted the youth by his side.

At his news conference, Dr. Potts said: "This sort of publicity is horrible for me but I don't care. I'm ready to do anything to get him back."

"Did you ever wander around Times Square in New York from nine o'clock in the morning until midnight, hoping to see a face you were looking for. I did. Several times. When I got tired I sat on the fenders of parked automobiles."

Young Potts was located at the Lackland base, near San Antonio by a reader who recognized him from a newspaper picture. His mother talked with him by telephone and confirmed the identity.

"She quoted him as saying, 'I was tired and fed up with it all. Flying was always my first love.' He studied flying at a Rochester aviation school."

Milk Will Increase One Cent August 7

The price of milk will be increased one cent per quart and cream and other dairy by-products also will be increased after August 7, it was indicated today by some of the Kingston milk dealers and others in the surrounding area.

The increase, according to the dealers, is necessitated by the rise in the cost of milk, cream and other by-products to the distributor as well as the increased cost in the operation of the plants. The last increase in the price of milk here was on October 12, 1947.

Say Probes Made To Start Atom War

Reds at Convention Are Labeling Hearings as Bi-Partisan 'Fakery'

New York, Aug. 5 (AP)—The American Communist party says current congressional investigations are part of a "spy scare" designed to start an atomic war.

In a resolution adopted yesterday at the Communists' 14th national convention, the party said: "This spy scare is even more than a circus sideshow. It is part of a bipartisan conspiracy to subject the American people to the force and violence of atomic war."

"The resolution labeled as 'fakery' the anti-Communist testimony given in the Washington hearings, and said that 'labor spies and stool pigeons have been repeating their opium dreams for years.'"

"The Senate Republicans are trying to get votes by smearing former New Deal officials associated with Roosevelt's progress."

Meeting Is Held to Talk Over Vets' Housing Affairs

Washington, Aug. 5 (AP)—U. S. district attorneys and federal housing expeditors from all parts of the country met here today to map a new drive against chiseling in veterans' housing.

The Justice Department, which arranged the conference, said its aim is "an all-out campaign against those individuals who have violated federal laws in the construction, sale and financing of veterans' homes."

Attorney General Clark brought in 21 district attorneys from the nation's most populous areas. Housing Expediter F. E. Woods assembled the seven deputy housing expeditors for veterans affairs

Reds Build Road Block At Border

Allies Increase Supply Lift With Yanks Carrying 2,104 Tons to Berlin

Parley Is Held

Allied Envoys Discuss Next Step in Their Negotiations

Berlin, Aug. 5 (AP)—Border police said today the Russians are putting up more road blocks on the British-Soviet zone border near Luebneg.

A dispatch from Hamburg, reporting this development, said small roads crossing the border in the area are being closed. The Russians are digging ditches through the roads and felling trees across them, the police said.

The Russians said 43 trains would be made available for exhibitors and buyers from western Germany at the Leipzig Fair in their zone late this month. A U. S. transport official predicted no train would be permitted to leave the American zone for the fair unless the Berlin blockade is lifted.

Train traffic to and from the Russian zone was cut off last month in retaliation for the Berlin blockade.

Three Americans who wandered into the Soviet zone of Berlin were released after the Russians held them three days. A fourth man still is being held, the U. S. Provost Marshal's Office said.

The United States and Britain stepped up their air lift yesterday.

Record Is Smashed

The Americans smashed their own record again yesterday, carrying in 2,104 tons of supplies in 303 flights, U. S. Air Force headquarters said. The R.A.F. made 242 flights in the same 24-hour period, carrying an estimated 1,000 tons.

American, British and French envoys conferred for three hours in Moscow last night on their next step in negotiations with Russia.

Frank Roberts, the special British envoy, received U. S. Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith and French Ambassador Yves Chaigneau at the British embassy.

Smith was accompanied by U. S. Embassy Counselor Foy Kohler. Informants said the three envoys may have discussed whether to seek another appointment with Stalin in order to inform him of the view of their home governments.

It was reliably reported yesterday that one of the three ambassadors—which one was not specified—already had received the first official reaction to the talks with Stalin Monday night.

Observers said all three envoys may have received such advice.

It is not definitely known whether the trio was made any effort to see Stalin or Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov again.

Plans Announced

American Airforce officials in Berlin announced plans for speeding up their supply shuttle still further. They said hereafter planes will depart on cargo runs every three minutes, weather permitting, instead of at the present four-minute interval.

Eleven new C-54 Skymasters capable of carrying seven and one-half tons arrived at the Rheinmair airfield at Frankfurt yesterday. The Skymasters have replaced all the smaller C-47 transports at the field. The C-47s still are operating from Weisbaden, the American supply base for Berlin.

U. S. transport officers estimated freight trains used to bring in an average of 9,000 to 10,000 tons of supplies daily to Berlin. About three fourths of the load was coal.

Twelve American Jet fighters bound for Germany, arrived at Glasgow, Scotland, yesterday aboard the U. S. Army Transport Barney Kirschbaum. The navy's escort carrier Sicily is scheduled to arrive at Glasgow Saturday with 69 more Jets. The 81 craft will be flown to the American base at Fursenfeldbruck, near Munich.

An official announcement at Glasgow said the planes and crews are being transferred from the Panama Canal Zone as "part of the U. S. Air Force normal training program under which combat troops are trained. They were: John North, 34, of 259 West O'Reilly street, who reported a chest injury; William Mohr, 43, of 626 Delaware avenue, who suffered a back injury; and Oliver Stokes, 33, of 61 Cedar street, who reported an injury of the left arm.

All were treated at the Kingston Hospital and discharged.

800 Children Have Glorious Time at Firemen Field Day

Kiddies Win Many Prizes, Relish Refreshments During Program at Stadium

It was a veritable four-alarm affair at the Kingston Municipal Stadium, Wednesday, when the Kingston Paid Firemen's Association put on its field day for more than 800 children.

The smiles of the youngsters were as bright as the sun that shone over the uptown ballpark, where there were contests with prizes galore and enough refreshments to satisfy the appetites of an army.

Everybody had a good time, not alone the youngsters, but the firemen who sponsored the event in collaboration with the Kingston Recreation Department which arranged the athletic events.

The place looked like Coney Island on a holiday when the youngsters stormed the refreshment stands. There were seconds, thirds and even more as the kiddies went to work on the hot dogs and orangeade furnished by the firemen.

Firemen off duty, who took care of the refreshments, were kept busy handing out several hundred pounds of sizzling weiners between rolls, and dipping out gallon after gallon of the tasty orange punch.

During the contests, and there were more events listed than at the Olympic games, there was plenty of cheering as the kids in the grandstand cheered their favorite participants.

There were winners galore and the job of tabulating them was a real task. Grand prizes were awarded as follows:

Bicycles to Paul Smith and Joan Setora with 10 and 11 points respectively.

Radios to George Schatzel, 8 points; and Marge Setera, 10 points.

Basketballs to Walter Schram, 7½ points; Gertrude Linck, 10 points.

Footballs to John Aiello, 7 points; E. Schultz, 10 points.

Baseball gloves to Francis Donnelly, 6 points; Newton Madison, 5; Bob Engel, 5; Charles Page, 5; Tennis racket to Bobby Bruck, 8 points.

Pen and pencil sets to Marlene Hamilton, Elaine Stopski, Mary Casat, H. Helloch, all with five points.

The program started at 10 a. m. Continued on Page Fifteen

Three Men Hurt In 3-Car Crash Below Port Ewen

Three local men were injured in a three-car accident, shortly after 12 a. m., today on Route 9W near the intersection of the road leading into the Hercules powder works, according to the state police at Lake Katrine.

A car owned by the Hudson Valley Concrete Co. of Newburgh, and operated by Wilbur T. Rogers, 51, of 737 Broadway, New York city, the report said, was in collision with a sedan owned and operated by Edwin J. Smedes, Jr., 21, R. D., Kingston.

The latter was at the head of a line of cars on their way out of the road from the powder works and was about to pull into the main highway when it was struck by the auto driven by Rogers. The Smedes car was forced back into one owned and operated by Raymond Carney, 36, of 78 Lincoln street.

State Trooper J. F. Harrison, who investigated, said Rogers reported that he was blinded by lights of other cars on the road as he was headed south. He went off the side of the road and collided with the car at the head of the line.

The three men injured were in the car driven by Smedes, the trooper said. They were: John North, 34, of 259 West O'Reilly street, who reported a chest injury; William Mohr, 43, of 626 Delaware avenue, who suffered a back injury; and Oliver Stokes, 33, of 61 Cedar street, who reported an injury of the left arm.

Wallace Is Suggested As Witness

Rankin Says Some of Those Charged as Spies Got Jobs Under Wallace

'Ring' Is Probed

Operation Within U.S. Capital Is Under Investigation

Washington, Aug. 5 (AP)—President Truman flung a "red herring" charge today at Congress members busy probing into alleged Communist infiltration of the government and "spying" during the war.

He said the Senate and House hearings are intended to divert attention from lack of Congressional action to combat inflation, and are (1) slandering people, and (2) turning up no information not already known to the F.B.I.

Mr. Truman loosed his attack on the Congressional hearings at a news conference. His remarks were in response to questions.

When a reporter asked whether he did not think the American public is entitled to the information being produced by the hearings, he said there was nothing new and that a lot of people have been slandered.

At the capitol, the Congressional investigators were talking of widening their inquiry.

Rep. Rankin (D-Miss.) proposed that the House Un-American Activities Committee call in Henry A. Wallace for questioning. He said it appeared that Communists got into "key positions" in the Commerce Department while Wallace headed it. Acting chairman Mundt (R-S.D.) said the question of subpoenaing Wallace would be considered at a closed committee session.

Testimony Received

Rankin said in a statement that the House Un-American Activities Committee has received testimony that a large number of individuals "charged with being Communist spies" worked in the department during the time Wallace was Secretary of Commerce.

That came out while the Senate group was trying anew and still in vain late yesterday to get more background information on William W. Remington, suspended $9,975-a-year Commerce Department official.

Three admirals and Secretary of the Navy Sullivan said they were barred by President Truman's instructions from turning over the data asked.

Remington came under scrutiny of the Senate committee after Miss Elizabeth T. Bentley named him as one of her sources of information when she, by her own account, was a courier for the wartime Soviet spy ring.

Promises to Have Talk

Sullivan promised to have a talk with Mr. Truman to see whether he would relax his rule so far as one phase of the Remington case is concerned.

Pending an answer, the senators planned to resume their questioning (9 a. m., E.S.T.) of Lawrence V. Meloy, secretary to the President's Loyalty Review Board.

Back on the House side, the Un-American Activities Committee gave Alger Hiss, former State Department official active in the founding of the United Nations, the chance he asked to deny officially that he was part of the pre-war Communist underground here. Hiss now heads the Carnegie Foundation for International Peace in New York.

Whittaker Chambers, a self-described former Communist who said he too was a courier for the underground, has testified that Hiss and others were part of it. Chambers, now with Time magazine, said he tried to get Hiss to break away from the Reds and that Hiss refused, giving "party line" reasons.

Rankin said these persons were evidently appointed by Wallace. Therefore, he said, the Progressive Party presidential candidate should be subpoenaed to "tell us why these Communists who were plotting the overthrow of the government were placed in key positions in this department at a time when our young men were fighting and dying on every bat-

Chronic Disease Problem Is To Be Discussed Here Friday

The problem of chronic disease in this community will be discussed before a gathering of Ulster county residents on Friday evening, August 6 at 8 o'clock at the Kingston City Laboratory on Broadway. One of the principal speakers will be Dr. John Bourke, executive director of the New York State Hospital Planning Commission.

Dr. Bourke has worked with the problems of chronic disease for several years and is at present the administrative agent for the Lee Maiter Commission, which is studying the problem for the state legislature. Dr. Bourke will be able to tell the interested local citizens of the steps taken in other areas and answer any questions they may have in this important field.

The solution of this health and welfare problem is considered vital by Edward Murray, Ulster county commissioner of welfare, and Dr. George James, Ulster county commissioner of health, and they have issued a call for cooperation by local residents. Anyone in the county interested in the discussions of chronic diseases is urged to attend the meeting on Friday.

Chronic diseases have gained increased importance as the acute illnesses have been conquered by modern health programs. With

FIRE'S BEST TARGET

Fire prevention must begin in dwelling places.

The last annual report of the State Fire Marshal of Oregon backs that up. In 1947, more than 74 per cent of all insurance claims in the state had to do with fires in dwellings, apartments and flats. By contrast, the second category—losses in mercantile and office buildings—accounted for but 6.5 per cent of the claims. From the standpoint of money loss, the home fires came to nearly 30 per cent of the total for the state—about double the figure for the next highest classification.

These proportions will vary from state to state. But the home is fire's most effective target. Reround heating equipment, sub-standard electrical facilities, carelessness with smoking materials and flammables—these causes alone are responsible for thousands of home fires each year. And in many of those fires, lives are lost.

The authorities can't inspect every home. They can't make you put your heating system in order before fall comes, or replace frayed wiring, or clean the junk out of attics and closets and basements, or do any of the other simple things that will go a long way toward making your house safe. All they can do is advise, and tell you what precautions to take. From there on, it's up to you.

If you think fire prevention is worthwhile, start checking on your own home now. The chances are you'll be amazed at how many hazards you find.

We've discovered some people with an unqualified word in favor of daylight saving time. They're the operators of golf courses and such who are cashing in on the working man's extra hour.

OUR WORST INSTITUTION

What is the least successful part of the federal government? Prof. Harold Laski, a brilliant member of the British Labor party who taught for some years in American universities, has an answer in his new book, "The American Democracy". While Laski's Socialist philosophy may affect his judgment on other matters, on this there is no occasion for any bias to show itself. He is clearly of mind that our least satisfactory institution is the House of Representatives.

He points out that members of the House, in practice and not because the Constitution so requires, live in their own districts; therefore must drop out if they offend powerful local interests. House business is so arranged that the important decisions are taken in secret committee sessions. When bills come up for vote, time for discussion is limited, often to as short a time as two hours, and sometimes amendment is forbidden. And it too often happens that the best-known Congressmen derive their fame from their unfitness rather than their merit.

Many of the House's troubles come from its rules, which it could alter. It all amounts to the need of getting better men. Here the voters back home could do a great deal.

The poorest kept secret of 1948 was the fact that the third Philadelphia convention would nominate Henry Wallace.

DAY OF MIRACLES

One of those bright paragraphs in history, which have a way of turning up in the midst of trouble, is being written this summer in Greensboro, N. C.

The city suddenly found its hospital facilities overwhelmed by an epidemic of poliomyelitis. Many months of planning, fund-raising and construction go into the erection of a hospital. Under present building conditions, months stretch into years. But the polio epidemic was already happening, and Greensboro just had to have another hospital to care for the victims.

If a miracle were needed to produce a new hospital soon enough to do any good in the present epidemic, that fact made no difference to civic leaders of Greensboro. They just started out to build a hospital. Everybody helped—suppliers of materials, skilled workers, people with money to give.

The 134-bed hospital will be in use before

'These Days'

THE BASING POINT

Often the Federal Trade Commission and our courts follow theory without the slightest regard either for experience or the welfare of the country. Administrative lawyers, who have come into control of our affairs, seek to remake our way of life without concern over the processes that have made this the greatest unit of production and that have given the American people their unusually high standard of living which represents the widest distribution of goods and services.

The basing point, which has been long in existence in the United States, permits a buyer to obtain materials from any manufacturer of that commodity at a competitive price with the manufacturer closest to the buyer. Thus, for instance, a steel manufacturer in Pittsburgh can sell to a buyer in Indiana at the same price as a steel manufacturer in Chicago. The difference in the cost of transportation is absorbed by the seller.

The FTC and now the courts say that that is wrong. In the Cement Case, the Supreme Court abolished the basing point. There are no loopholes in that decision which the FTC interprets as follows:

"The Court agreed with the Commission that this pricing system not only constitutes an 'unfair method of competition' but also involves unlawful price discrimination. It further held, in effect, that identical delivered prices which the system was designed to establish, regardless of wide differences in the cost of transportation from widely scattered plants, automatically created and reflected systematic discriminations in net factory prices."

Curiously, this decision does not increase competition but kills it off. Justice Burton, who dissented, made that clear:

"This is the field where a producer, for his own purposes and without collusion, offers ships his product to a customer, who, in turn, offers it to the producer's competitors than to the producer himself. In selling to such a customer, this producer is at an obvious freight disadvantage, therefore, reduces his delivered-price in that area by a sum sufficient to absorb his freight disadvantage. He might do this for many reasons. For example, the customer might be such a large customer that the volume of his orders would yield such a return to the producer that the producer, by distributing his fixed charges over the resulting increased volume of business, could absorb the freight differential without loss of profit to his business as a whole and without raising any charges to his other customers. It might make the difference between a profitable and a losing business, resulting in the producer's solvency or bankruptcy. . . . Of course, that would not worry the theoreticians, not until the steel companies decided to follow the letter of their ruling which upset them no end. In the Morton Salt case, the FTC won another victory in the Supreme Court which will cost the housewife considerable money. Here the Court decided, following the FTC, that 'centrad discounts' may not be given; that is, that the manufacturer may not pass on to his customer the cost of operations. Justice Jackson and Frankfurter dissented from this opinion, Jackson saying:

"The Court uses overtones of hostility to all quantity discounts, which I do not find in the Act, but they are translated into a rule which is fatal to any discount the Commission sees fit to attack. . . . The law of this case, in a nutshell, is that no quantity discount is valid if the Commission chooses to say it is not. That is not the law which Congress enacted and which this Court has uniformly stated until today."

Another matter, the Rigid Conduit case, comes into this discussion, but I have no room for it here. I need only make the point that these decisions involve increased costs at a time of high prices that they confuse business processes, that they disorganize the normal relations between buyer and seller and that they accomplish nothing of benefit to anyone. But they do make the administrative lawyers happy because their theories are upheld by the Supreme Court.

ABOUT INFANTILE PARALYSIS

(Poliomyelitis)

As the season for infantile paralysis (poliomyelitis) approaches, parents naturally are anxious; and since the early symptoms of the disease are similar to other diseases of childhood, the child may suffer a few days before it is recognized.

Also, a youngster may have been playing with other youngsters one or more of whom are infected, and one to three weeks may elapse before he himself develops poliomyelitis.

As poliomyelitis strikes hardest during August and September, it would be well for parents to be on the alert, even if the disease has not reached their particular community.

The first point to remember is that the youngster may appear to be in the best of health, perhaps just returned from summer camp. In fact, the records show that in the large majority of cases—about three in every four—the healthy child is struck down suddenly with rapid pulse and a moderately high temperature of 100 or 103 degrees Fahrenheit.

His first and perhaps only complaint is tiredness. A youngster always "on the go" wants to watch other children play and not want to play himself. This follows headache, drowsiness (though mind is clear), restlessness, twitching, vomiting, diarrhoea and running nose with tonsils redder than normal. Sore throat is present in about half the cases.

Helpful to parents and others are illustrations showing the posture or carriage of the body in a youngster with poliomyelitis when he is being examined by the physician. These illustrations were used in an article by Dr. John F. Pohl in the "Journal of the American Medical Association." The child's head is bent sharply backward; also the body and the muscles in the back of the thighs are tightened by spasms. When the child sits up, he assumes a "tripod" position, with both hands on the floor behind him, bracing himself.

I am not writing about the various stages or types of poliomyelitis and the treatment, but just giving a few of the symptoms to help parents recognize the disease.

summer is ended. Perhaps the day of miracles has not yet passed. Or maybe it is that, as the architect who drew the plans remarked, most of the building "came right out of people's hearts."

Cleveland, O., has something new in a female purse snatcher. It seems a dubious distinction.

It is incredible what a racket one little fly can make when a body is trying to think.

You never quite know when a politician's goose is cooked—if it is.

The Weak Link

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson

Washington—Speaker Joe Martin has again blocked the Taft-Elliender-Wagner housing act by a clever parliamentary maneuver. The bill has been passed by the Senate, has been OK'd by the House Banking and Currency Committee, but is now blocked inside the Rules Committee. It could be passed in about one day if the Rules Committee would let it reach the House floor for debate.

In order to get it to the floor, Rep. Helen Gahagan Douglas of California has been circulating a "discharge" petition, which when it gets 215 names will force the Rules Committee to discharge the housing bill.

But to block Mrs. Douglas Speaker Martin decreed that no congressman could sign the petition unless the House was in session. Then Joe promptly recessed the House for a long weekend.

This probably makes the passage of a housing act impossible. Because it is required that Mrs. Douglas's discharge petition "lie on the speaker's desk for seven legislative days," by which time the special session of Congress will have adjourned—if G.O.P. leaders have their way.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Douglas has 163 names on her petition. Sam Rayburn has promised to get her the last 25 names as soon as she gets 190.

Note—If Sam got busy now, with his prestige and influence, he could get 50 names in one day.

Unfortunate Congressman
This column does not comment on the private life of public figures—except where it interferes with their public duties.

But when a Congressman is so frequently under the influence of liquor that he literally has to be escorted away from public functions where he is scheduled to speak, and when he attempts to transfer an enlisted man to an active war front because of personal spite, then the people who elect him are entitled to know about it. It is the unpleasant obligation of the Washington press to report these things.

Unfortunately, the record of Congressman Virgil Chapman, Democrat of Kentucky now aspiring to the Senate, is not a happy one to recount.

In 1945, Roy H. Hamilton of Berea, Ky., a Navy enlisted man with 32 months duty overseas, was ordered back to the United States after V-E Day. But Hamilton had certain political information about Congressman Chapman, who feigned with the Navy to order Hamilton back to sea. At this point, Senator "Happy" Chandler of Kentucky intervened with the Secretary of the Navy, told him of Chapman's personal spite and the order was canceled.

All this is a matter of record. Equally embarrassing have been some of the Congressman's antics on official trips and speaking engagements. Sent to Alaska at the taxpayer's expense on an official inspection trip, the Gentleman from Kentucky fell so lamentably below Kentucky standards when it came to holding his liquor that he had to be taken to a hospital.

At one time, Rep. Leonard Hall, New York Republican, had to escort Chapman out of a hotel bar to keep him from embarrassing the official mission.

On another occasion, Chapman in such a condition while attending a meeting of the House Secretaries Association that other guests pushed him outside the door, where he lay in the hall—the fallen Gentleman from Kentucky. Again, scheduled to speak at the "Thoroughbred Horse Raising Association" last year, Chapman forgot himself in such a state that the toastmaster could not call on him.

This is the man who now aspires to the U. S. Senate. When a U. S. ambassador makes a public spectacle of himself, he is recalled. A Congressman is the ambassador of his own district. However, he cannot be recalled except by the people who elect him. Unpleasant as the above facts are, it is better that the people of Kentucky know them before an election, not afterward.

Friendship Exhibit

The Library of Congress this week has a special display of gifts from the people of France and Italy in gratitude for the Friendship ship. It includes a special resolution of thanks passed by the French Assembly and signed by M. Edouard Herriot, the Grand Old Man of France.

A special resolution from the cities of Italy, bearing the flags of those cities, is also in the exhibit. After the display, these documents will become the permanent records of the Library of Congress, as custodian for the American public.

North-South Football

Champ Pickens of Montgomery, Ala., the man who is trying to build up North-South understanding through sports, once had to solve a complicated problem involving President Truman's home state.

Pickens stages a football game every December between an all-star team from the North and an all-star team of the South, which is played at Montgomery, Cradle of the Confederacy. One year the question arose as to whether the University of Missouri was in the North or the South.

A hot debate followed, partly because the star Missouri player was named Jefferson Davis, and the South wanted him on its team. However, when Pickens consulted the map, he found that Columbia, Mo., home town of the university, was north of the Mason-Dixie Line; so Jefferson Davis came to Montgomery, Ala., Cradle of the Confederacy, and played on the side of the North.

Champ Pickens has organized the Blue and Grey Association to which he charges $1 membership and which anyone can join, in order to promote North-South understanding. With the proceeds he plans to build a football stadium as a shrine to those who were both the Blue and the Grey.

Under the Dome

The House Un-American Activities Committee is secretly investigating Communism among American Negroes. Several prominent Negro leaders will be invited to testify. . . . Gov. Earl Warren will open his vice-presidential campaign Sept. 7, with a tour of the Northwest, then will concentrate on Texas and the border states. . . . Friends say Henry Wallace is privately worried over the way the communies have taken over his new party. Though worried, Wallace hasn't got the courage to kick them out. Congratulations to the Senate Small Business Committee for helping the small oil companies from being crowded out by the big boys. . . . Senator Ecton of Montana and Congressman John Sainborn of Idaho, both Republicans, are using their free mailing rank to blanket the West with silver lobby propaganda. . . . Republicans are debating whether to call a special session of their own—right after the November election. The idea has the approval of House Speaker Joe Martin.

Type of Questions Being Asked Shows Public Isn't Clear on Legal Problems of Investigation

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, Aug. 5.—Many people are asking questions about the "spy ring" and the presence of Communists in the government and particularly why President Truman doesn't seem to have ferreted out some of the individuals whose loyalty has been in doubt.

Observers are asking, too, why the Federal Bureau of Investigation hasn't succeeded in indicting or prosecuting some of the individuals named. Also it is being said that the grand jury investigated and nevertheless didn't indict some of the persons accused of disloyalty.

All this indicates that the public isn't clear on what the legal problems really are. In the first place, the F.B.I. is an investigating and not a prosecuting agency. It collects all the evidence but it is up to someone in the Department of Justice to decide what shall be done with it—who shall be prosecuted.

When it comes to asking a grand jury to indict, there must be some presumption of guilt, some belief that the evidence would lead to a conviction. Unless the department's attorneys are convinced that they have a good case, the grand jury will not indict.

The explanation is being made, for instance, that the Justice Department didn't have copies of what was actually transmitted to the Russian Government and hence no proof could be had against those alleged to have transmitted information in a "spy ring." This may or may not be an insurmountable technicality, but it would seem that many an indictment has been rendered by grand juries in the past at the request of the Department of Justice on far less convincing pieces of circumstantial evidence.

Then there is the question of disloyalty probes inside the government. So much personal and political influence is brought to bear by friends who believe absolute in the integrity of those they defend that the record becomes baffling. Then there is the all-important question of whether a person is a Communist in the sense of being a part of the Russian spy system or whether he is a Communist from an ideological or political point of view only.

Many so-called American Communists might say they never intended in any way to become a part of any movement to overthrow the government of the United States. (Reproduction rights reserved)

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

New York, Aug. 3.—In his opening speech of the 1948 campaign delivered to the joint session of Congress, President Truman said the special immigration law, called the Displaced Persons Act, discriminated unfairly against some displaced persons because of their religion, land of origin or occupation. This law would admit 200,000 persons and charge them against future quotas. He wanted to admit 400,000 "outside the normal immigration quotas."

In his speech, Mr. Truman said "We desperately need more housing at lower prices," especially "rental-housing and low-rent housing." Most of the immigrants would settle in the cities of New York and Chicago where the housing situation already is so bad that many native Americans are either homeless or forced to double up. The plight of the veteran of the Second World War is emphasized for emotional, political effect although he is presumed to have done no more than his duty and the veteran of the First World War has an equally valid claim to subsidize if any going.

Only confused issues give prominence to the veteran. The American citizen, is the one who deserves first chance at the housing and no immigrant should be considered until the last American has been accommodated. Of course, he will not be considered first and the Constitution is the effect that our purpose is to promote our own general welfare and "secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity" invites the savage abuse of alien-minded propagandists who will call him a Fascist.

During the convention, the Democratic orators said the present displaced persons act was anti-Catholic and anti-Jewish. Since then prominent Catholic clergy have repudiated the Democrats on that issue and two Catholic Congressmen, Fellows, of Maine, and Lesinski, of Michigan, have agreed.

The question whether the present act does discriminate against Jews can't even be argued, still less decided, because there exists today in all fields of debate in the United States an absolute verboten against the subject. It can't even be mentioned and therefore decisions are being made, many of them arbitrarily or even by Francis Bellamy in August, 1892. He was then a member of the editorial staff of The Youth's Companion in Boston.

Q—When were surnames adopted?
A—Surnames, in modern times, were first used in France, particularly in Normandy, where they can be traced to the latter part of the 10th century. They were introduced into England by the Normans, after the Conquest. The Jews were the last to adopt surnames.

Q—What was the purpose of the Lewis and Clark expedition?
A—To explore the Louisiana Territory and to find a route to the Pacific.

Q—Who wrote "The Pledge to the Flag"?
A—The Flag Pledge was written by Francis Bellamy in August, 1892. He was then a member of the editorial staff of The Youth's Companion in Boston.

Q—Who founded the Order of the Jesuits?
A—Ignatius de Loyola, the founder of the Order of Jesuits, or Society of Jesus, was born in Spain in 1491. The Society is still governed by the original rules and constitution of St. Ignatius.

Q—What is a diamond of the first water?
A—A diamond which has the highest degree of purity and fineness is said to be of the first water. Color is the most important thing in judging a diamond. Those of the finest quality are perfectly clear.

Q—Who wrote "The Pledge to the Flag"?

Need for Economy
I place economy among the first and most important virtues, and public debt as the greatest of dangers to be feared.

To preserve our independence, we must not let our rulers load us with perpetual debt. We must make our choice between economy and liberty, or profusion and servitude.

If we run into such debts, we must be taxed in our meat and drink, on our necessities and in our comforts, in our labors and in our amusements.

If we can prevent the government from wasting the labors of the people under the pretense of caring for them, they will be happy.

The same prudence which in private life would forbid our paying our money for unexplained projects forbids it in the disposition of public money.

—Thomas Jefferson.

Wife: "Have you a good memory for faces, dear?"
Hubby: "I have."
Wife: "Splendid—I've just dropped your shaving mirror."

It pays to be active, but with a definite purpose. The squirrel in a cage attains great speed, but he never arrives.

I like to sing in the bathroom. And splash water on the floor. I have to sing in the bathtub. There's no lock on the bathroom door.

The reason a political speech has a happy ending is that everybody's glad when it's over.

Women have many faults, but men have only two: what they do and what they say.

Old story: A woman who was asked by the new curate what she thought of his sermon, replied: "Very good, indeed, sir; so instructive. In fact, we didn't know what sin really was until you came here."

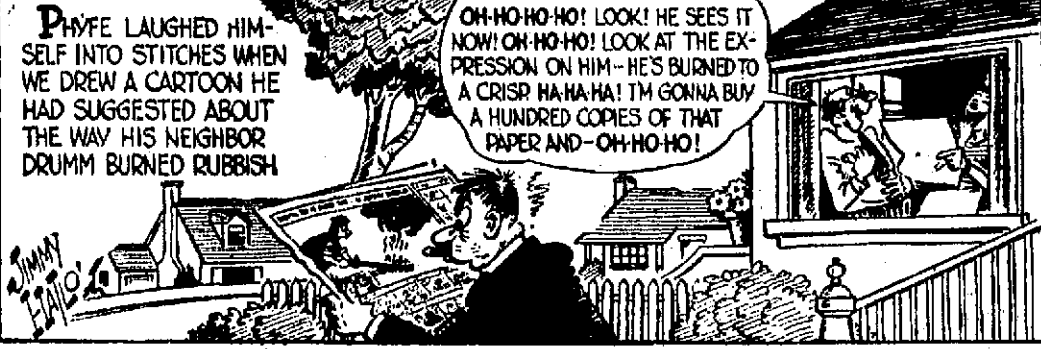

First Moth: "What's the matter Charlie, you look starved."

Second Moth: "No wonder! I just spent the week-end at a nudist camp."

The bigger a man's head gets the easier it is to fill his shoes.

Sees Harm to Party

New York, Aug. 5 (AP)—James A. Farley says the current Washington Communist investigations will have "a bad effect" on the Democratic party. Before leaving aboard the liner America yesterday for a business trip to Europe, the former Democratic national chairman said persons named in the investigations are not regular Democratic party members. He said that "the Democratic party has suffered and will continue to suffer in this campaign" because of their alleged activities.

Removes Grass Stains

Grass stains on white summer clothes may be removed, say clothing specialists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, by first brushing or sponging off the old stain, then brushing the stain with a solution of sodium perborate in water or peroxide. Rinse, apply fresh polish. Work rapidly, cautions the specialists, to avoid water-logging shoes unnecessarily.

Vets Joy in Life Killed By 'Kindness' of Others

St. Louis, Aug. 5 (AP)—Roy Webb's joy of living has been killed by other peoples' kindnesses.

Webb, a war veteran out of the Quartermaster Corps, lost his home and his belongings in a fire several months ago. His troubles began when neighbors collected $772 to help him.

Here are his complaints:

"Everyone is careful to mention how much he contributed. I've added it all up and it comes to about $5,000.

"They all think I'm a millionaire because one group said it was going to try to raise $7,000 for me.

"The neighbors expected me to build a new house overnight. I've had to spend so much time at it I lost my job as a sign erector.

"Carpenters, electricians, plasterers and others volunteered to help but none ever showed up.

"People wouldn't let me build the kind of house I wanted. I wanted something fabricated but they all insist I build something more expensive."

Webb said he is selling the half-completed house so he can return the contributions.

"I want to get back my self-respect," he said.

A spokesman from the group which rounded up the contributions sympathized, "some of the persons may be jealous and patronizing but the donations were made from the kindness of our hearts. We don't owe us anything and I'm sure no one will accept the return of their donations."

KRUMVILLE

Krumville, Aug. 4—The annual Ladies' Aid fair and supper will be held at the parsonage on Thursday, Aug. 12. A ham supper will be served and rugs and other fancy articles will be on sale.

She's Walking for the First Time

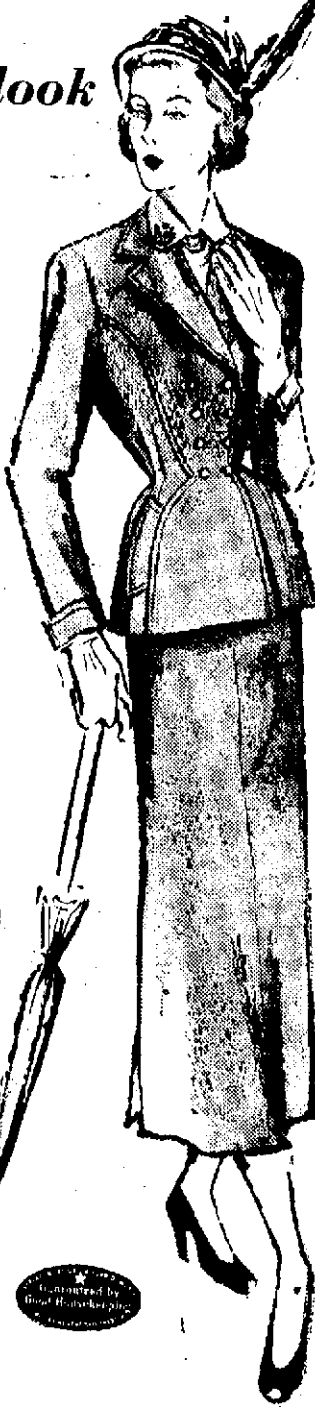

This picture records the biggest thrill in the life of 8-year-old Patricia Janello, of Christopher, Ill. She's walking for the first time. Born with spastic knees, she was a hopeless cripple until five months ago, when operations were performed at Chicago's Illinois Research Hospital. Her happiness is mirrored in her face as she walks toward her father, August. Nurse Shirley Stevenson and her mother encourage her.

Circus Acts at Broadway Theatre

Performance This Week at Local Theatre Features Circus Artists

The circus and the novelty entertainment fields will supply the entertainers on Friday and Saturday, August 6 and 7, for the special "Midsummer Carnival" vaudeville shows to be presented at the Broadway Theatre.

The circus will be represented by Sorelle Saltons and Company, European tumblers; The Fredlys, Barnum and Bailey bull whip artists; and Al and Connie Fenton, jugglers, dancers and acrobats; with Lew Nelson, supper club comedian, and Bob and Dianne Scott, former Schubert musical comedy performers, upholding the novelty field. This will be the fourth in the special series of summer stage shows, having followed an All-Girl Show, an All-Boys Show, and a Hill Billy Night. Two evening and one matinee performance will be presented daily, in addition to the Broadway's first-run screen attraction, "Hanging on Heaven" with Stuart Erwin and Glenda Farrell.

Imported directly from Europe, the Saltons troupe includes three pretty girls and two men in an act performed in suave and snappy Continental style. Their interesting routine includes acrobatic tumbling, somersaults, flat twists, and various balancing formations.

An unusual act will be presented by the Fredlys' veterans of the Barnum and Bailey circus. Working with 16 and 20 foot bull whips, and clad in Indian costumes, they perform rhythmic snapping routines, and flicking bits of paper and cigarettes from each other's hands and mouths.

Al and Connie Fenton, young acrobats, jugglers and dancers, who have had circus as well as extensive stage experience, will present their "Terps from Tan-back" act. They have just returned from a tour of Europe, which included playing at London's Palladium and Manchester's Hippodrome.

The Scotts, billed as "Sweet-hearts of Song" have appeared in several of the more recent Schubert musical hits, and have made frequent radio appearances. Young Lew Nelson, billed as "A Bad Boy From a Good Family" has done most of his work in West Coast night clubs, appearing last month at California's famous Frontier comedy, songs and impersonations.

Medical Tool Hits Assembly Line

On the assembly line in Seattle, Wash., a worker uses a stethoscope to test the pressurization systems of high-flying airplanes. The stethoscope is the same instrument doctors use to listen to your heart. Its use on aircraft supplants the old method of blowing smoke through the system to detect leaks.

Young Woman Raped

Clearwater, Fla., Aug. 5 (AP)—A prominent young bride-to-be was brutally beaten and raped by a Negro today. Police Chief Jefferson J. Elliott said the victim was attacked in a guest bungalow, located near the residence of her parents. She was alone in the bungalow which she planned to occupy after her marriage, two weeks hence. Elliott said the young woman struggled with her attacker in an attempt to gain possession of a revolver she kept in a dresser drawer.

Eight Escape Fire

Litchfield, Mo., Aug. 5 (AP)—A New York woman and seven children escaped safely today as fire damaged their two and one-half story summer home after destroying a barn. Mrs. John D. Bell of Woodhaven, L. I., N. Y., estimated the loss at $8,000. She, her three daughters, Joan, Nancy and Betty; a son, John, and three grandchildren, Jack, Wayne, and Robert Larder, were warned of the approaching flames by men working on the farm. Considerable new furniture was destroyed.

Rankin got out his statement as the House committee prepared to resume its hearings on alleged Communist activities in the government.

Rep. Mundt (R-S. D.) disclosed the committee is making some quiet inquiry into whether there is a present "Communist ring" in the government.

Are Investigating Ring

"We are investigating," the acting chairman of the House Un-American Activities Committee told reporters.

So far, committee hearings have dealt only with testimony that a Red espionage system was at work in the government during the war and that a Communist "underground" operated here before the war.

However, the Senate investigating committee which is looking into more recent happenings has turned up evidence that 38 workers have been fired as disloyal since the government's loyalty program was set up 16 months ago.

In a telegram to the House committee asking that he be allowed to answer under oath today, Hiss said he does not know chambers and does not recall ever laying eyes on him.

After her testimony about Remington before the Senate committee last Friday, Miss Bentley moved over to the House committee the next day. There she said she got secret wartime information from groups of government officials and a number of other independently and sent it on the way to Soviet agents.

Of the 30-odd people she named it had been generally accepted that all but Remington had left the government. Mundt, however, said today:

"We don't know how many of the people named by Miss Bentley are still in the government, but we are checking on that. Some of the people, I think, are still in the government service."

"If they are, we don't know who their courier is at the moment. Before, it was Chambers and then Miss Bentley."

"There is small reason to assume that it (spying) has stopped. There is more reason for Russian agents to be spying now than when we were on friendly terms as allies."

Driscoll Refuses To Send Escapee To South Carolina

Trenton, N. J., Aug. 5 (AP)—Gov. Alfred E. Driscoll today refused to return John Collier to what his attorney said would be a "living death" on a South Carolina chain gang for a $5 theft.

Collier, a Negro, escaped from the chain gang 11 years ago after serving nine months of a 19-month sentence. He has been held in Newark 27 months on a fugitive warrant.

Refusing to honor South Carolina's demand for his return, Driscoll asserted Collier "has by this time amply paid his debt to society, to such an extent that no further sound purpose could be served by his extradition."

It was the first time since 1932, when former Gov. A. Harry Moore declined to send Robert Elliott Burns back to a Georgia chain gang, that New Jersey has rejected another state's demand for extradition.

During his two-year fight to remain in New Jersey, Collier charged he was denied a fair trial and subjected "to cruel and inhuman beatings while stripped naked." He said a companion,

James Edwards, was beaten to death before his eyes while chained to prison bars.

Later, Collier said, he was beaten with bridle reins, rubber hose and an iron file and a prison guard dipped a straw broom in oil set it on fire, and swept it across his back. All the while, he said, he was shackled day and night in chains weighing 35 pounds.

Driscoll's decision was on an application by Collier for recall of an extradition warrant signed by former Gov. Walter E. Edge, January 9, 1947. At a hearing before the governor last March 25, representatives of a dozen organizations pleaded that his return to South Carolina would mean a "living death."

"Collier would rather you execute him in the electric chair here in Trenton," his counsel, Abram A. Golden of Newark, said, "than to return him to a brutal delayed death in South Carolina, where he is a marked man, and the victim of a foul system of white supremacy."

Driscoll's decision was made by his office. The governor is in a Philadelphia hospital, where he underwent an operation Tuesday.

A single herd of bison, seen by Col. R. F. Dodge, in May, 1871, was estimated to contain at least 4,000,000 animals.

960 More Dogs Are Given Vaccine

Wednesday night six more rabies vaccination clinics were held in Esopus, Napanoch, Kingston (Rapid), Kingston (Cordts), Milton and Saugerties, and a total of 960 were inoculated. This brings the total of dogs immunized to 2,575 or 22%. We still have 5,615 dogs to go in order to reach our 70% quota necessary for designation.

The breakdown of the clinics is: Esopus, 137; Napanoch, 178; Kingston (Rapid), 120; Kingston (Cordts), 172; Milton, 160; Saugerties, 195.

recessing at the end of each day, leaving the poll tax motion as the order of business.

Yesterday, however, the Republicans proposed that the Senate adjourn for the night—a step that would clear the calendar of the poll tax motion.

Surrender Is Protested

Senator Barkley of Kentucky, the Democratic leader and Mr. Truman's vice presidential running mate, bitterly protested this surrender on the civil rights issue. "The Senate cannot forever go on and admit to the American people that it is impossible to function," he declared.

But when the roll was called, 24 Democrats joined with the solidly voting 45 Republicans to snow under the administration forces by a count of 69 to 16.

"We were not going to stay here for three or four weeks or longer just to try to break this filibuster," Taft said. "We (Republicans) are agreed that a change in Senate rules to permit it to act will be the first thing we take up at the next session."

Taft's reference was to the Senate rule for invoking "cloture." This device shuts off debate, but under current interpretations of the rule it can be applied only when an actual bill is before the Senate—not when the chamber is debating a motion as was the case in the poll tax fight.

Taft said the idea of changing the rule was left over from the next session because "it probably will take three or four weeks." What he meant was that the southerners probably will filibuster against that, too.

Taft and other leaders conceded that they face a tight time table in trying to jam through their program this week.

House leaders, invoking rules that limit debate and bar amendments led off today with an effort to pass the striped-down anti-inflation bill. The consumer credit features were approved by the Senate at the regular session and quick action by the Senate Banking Committee was promised for the added curbs on bank lending power.

House leaders decided to apply the amendment-banning rule to forestall any attempt by administration supporters to tinker on discarded portions of President Truman's cost of living program. These included his demand for limited price control and rationing authority.

However, the same rule that puts the issue before the House on a "take it or leave it" basis also requires approval by a two-thirds majority. And some Democrats insisted this was not a cinch.

But once the anti-inflation measure is disposed of, the House was expected to give quick assent to the U. N. loan measure, which also cleared the Senate earlier this year.

The Senate Banking Committee was one possible bottleneck for plans to rush approval this forenoon of a modified version of the housing bill already passed by the House.

Taft said G.O.P. leaders hoped to get the housing bill before the Senate "by noon or 2 o'clock" and over to the House as soon as possible.

Lot of Opposition

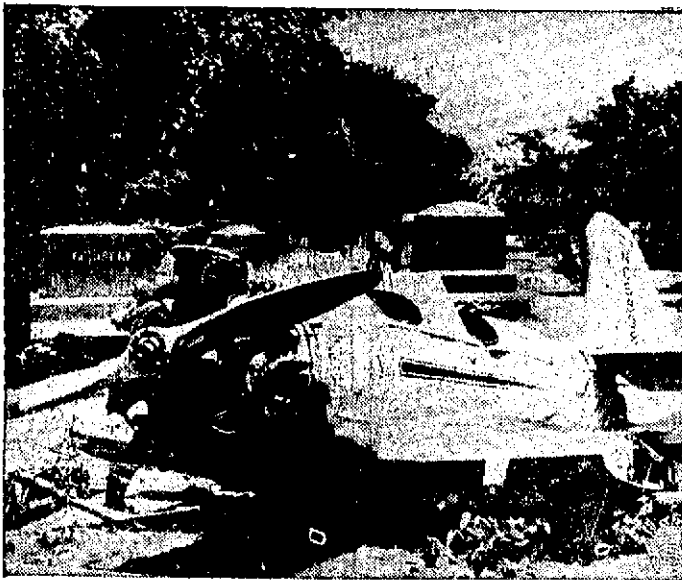

But Taft noted that "there is a lot of opposition to some features of it."

"For instance," he said, "if anyone offers a public housing amendment I'll vote for it."

The Ohio senator is a co-author of the Taft-Ellender-Wagner long range housing bill which Mr. Truman plugged hard in his message to the special session.

One feature of that bill—passed by the Senate last spring but then bottled up by the House Rules Committee—calls for publicly-owned low-rent housing and slum

Pilots Faced Grave Situation

Chills must have run up and down the spines of two Galveston, Tex., pilots when they climbed, unhurt, out of this wrecked plane and saw where they were. They had crashed amid the tombstones of a San Antonio, Tex., cemetery.

Clearance Projects

The new bill would revive and broaden some government housing aids, primarily those intended to spur construction of low-cost homes.

Plans of G.O.P. congressional leaders apparently overlook one request of their own presidential candidate, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York. Dewey, as did Mr. Truman, suggested a revision of the displaced persons act passed by the regular session, although Dewey issued his statement before the special session call. One idea is to change the date mentioned in the law so as to make more people eligible for admission.

But Taft said there is "little chance" for this because of strong Senate opposition.

The act now permits 205,000 war refugees to be admitted to this country the next two years. However, Ugo Christ, new displaced persons commissioner, said Congress actually voted only enough money to bring in about 40,000 in the first years.

Local Veterans of 34th Invited to Reunion

Former members of the 34th (Red Bull) Infantry Division in Kingston and vicinity are eligible to become members of the newly organized 34th Infantry Division Association and are invited to attend its first national convention to be held at the Hotel Savary, Des Moines, Iowa, on September 11 and 12.

Applications for membership and order blanks for the 34th Division history book and hotel and convention registration blanks may be obtained from Thomas W. Miller, 58 Fair street, a former member of the division, or by writing direct to the association headquarters in Des Moines.

The "Red Bull" Division, the first U. S. division sent overseas after Pearl Harbor, served in

Guadaleanal Patsy 12 Years Old Now; She Loves Marines

Singapore, Aug. 5 (AP)—The wonder waif of the Pacific is almost grown up now. She's 12 years old.

Patsy Li, the little Chinese girl who six years ago mysteriously turned up in the midst of the shooting war on Guadalcanal, today is studying the three R's in a Singapore school.

But she hasn't forgotten her days with the U. S. Marines on Guadalcanal. She hasn't had a chance. Newspaper stories up and down the coast have kept the memory alive for her.

Little Patsy, like many a youngster her age, is limelight-conscious. But in her case what is usually a mere "stage" threatens to become a serious personality problem, according to her guardian.

That's why there are to be no more interviews.

A lot of American marines who were on Guadalcanal will remember Patsy and wish her happily over the rocky road of adolescence.

They will remember her as the six-year-old, very sick with malaria, who one day in the heat of battle was carried by natives to the American lines. She had been found, wounded and very ill, in an abandoned Japanese camp.

Adopted Her
The U. S. Marines adopted her and she became famous as "Patsy of Guadalcanal."

Patsy had been separated from her mother, Mrs. Ruth Li of Singapore, when the ship on which they were escaping from Malaya was torpedoed off the Netherlands East Indies in February, 1942. Mrs. Li was rescued. No trace was found of her child at the time.

Three thousand miles from the scene of the sinking on Guadalcanal an American correspondent wrote up the story of the little Chinese girl.

In New York Mrs. Ruth Li's sister, a cancer research worker, read the story and noted that the little girl answered to the name of Patsy Li—the name of the little niece lost in the torpedoing off the Dutch East Indies. She wrote to her sister.

It was a clue—and the unhappy Singapore mother flew to the orphanage in the New Hebrides where the girl had been placed and rescued her.

How she traveled the 3,000 miles from the place where the ship sank to Guadalcanal, nobody knows. Probably the Japanese fished her out of the sea, adopted her and brought her with them to Guadalcanal. It's still a mystery to everyone including Patsy.

Today in Singapore a growing-up Patsy often asks: "Have you ever met an American marine? They're wonderful."

New Plane Nearly Ready
London (AP)—The drapes will be taken off Britain's "New Look" aircraft, which is built of non-inflammable magnesium and has its propeller in the tail, at the Society of British Aircraft Constructors' flying display at Farnborough, Hampshire, in September. The plane, the Satellite, made by the Planet Aircraft Co. has a top speed estimated at 208 m.p.h. with a cruising speed of 190 m.p.h. Its range is 1,000 miles with a full load, or 2,450 miles—equivalent to an Atlantic crossing—with only the pilot.

One difference between an expert and an average bridge player is that the expert does not take anything for granted. The average player has been taught that when he and the dummy hold eight trumps, the opponents' trumps normally are divided 3-2. But the expert asks himself if he can make the hand if the adverse trumps are divided 4-1 or 5-0.

In today's hand West cashes the king and ace of clubs, and declarer wins the third round. He leads a small spade, West plays the nine-spot and dummy's king. Now declarer leads back the seven of spades and East puts on the eight. If South reasons that the trumps are divided 3-2, he will go up with the ace, expecting to drop the queen or jack. If he does that on this hand, he will lose two trump tricks.

He must make the safety play of covering the eight-spot with the queen. When West shows out, declarer lays down the ace of spades. Thus he loses only one spade trick and two clubs.

There are innumerable safety plays of this type, and you should always be on the lookout for them.

FALSE TEETH
That Loosen
Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETL, the alkaline (non-toxic) powder, on your plates. Holds false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETL at any drug store.

GARDEN PRODUCE IS BUDGET ALLY

New cabbage and red tomatoes baked in cheese sauce.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

Use your garden or your local vegetable stalls to cut food costs now. Well-balanced meals can be based on vegetable main dishes.

Cabbage and Tomato Casserole
(Serves 5)

Four cups raw shredded cabbage, 5 medium-size tomatoes, sliced, 2 tablespoons minced onion, 2 tablespoons butter or fortified margarine, 4 tablespoons flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 1 1/2 cups milk, 1 cup grated Old English-type cheese (4 ounces).

Arrange shredded cabbage and tomato slices in layers in a two-quart heat-resistant glass casserole, beginning with cabbage and ending with tomato slices. Sprinkle each layer of tomato slices with onion. Melt butter or margarine over hot water in top of double boiler. Stir in flour, salt and pepper. Add milk and continue cooking until mixture is thickened and no starchy taste remains, or for about 20 minutes. Remove from heat and stir cheese into white sauce until melted. Pour cheese sauce over vegetables in casserole. Cover and bake in moderately hot oven (375 degrees F.) for 30 minutes. Remove cover and continue baking for 15 minutes longer.

Baked Summer Squash with Tomatoes
(Serves 4-6)

One medium-sized summer squash, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 2 medium-sized to-matatoes, 1/2 cup onion slices, 1 tablespoon butter or fortified margarine, melted, parsley.

Wash squash; cut in half lengthwise. Remove seeds and place in a well-greased layer cake dish. Season with salt and pepper. Peel tomatoes and slice. Place tomato slices first; then onion slices, on top of squash. Pour melted butter or margarine over vegetables. Bake, covered, in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for about 50 minutes or until tender. Garnish with parsley and serve directly from the dish.

Seitz Salary Case Set for August 7

The action brought by Deputy City Clerk Harry Seitz to collect a difference of $486 in his salary which has been set down for August 7 at special term at Monticello, will be heard tomorrow before Supreme Court Justice Harry E. Schirick at chambers. Justice Schirick consented with counsel to hear the matter in Kingston at 11 o'clock Friday.

Seitz brings the action against Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk and City Treasurer Oscar A. Goodsell to recover the difference between the salary of $2,600 which it is alleged was to become effective on January 1, 1948, and the salary of $2,114 which is the basis upon which he has been paid.

The salary was fixed at $2,600 last year, to become effective on January 1, 1948, but with the reduction of the budget to come within the 2 per cent limitation clause, the increase was not put into effect, and he has been paid at the rate of $2,114 since January first.

Granger Says Big Grain Crop to Cut Out Meat Crisis

Predicts Bigger Supply in Year's Time if Price Controls Are Not Invoked

Ithaca, Aug. 5.—The real cure for the meat crisis is now on the way in the form of the largest grain crop in history, James A. McConnell, general manager of the Cooperative Grange League Federation Exchange, said here today.

He predicted more meat on the consumer's table in about a year unless price controls are invoked that would prevent the law of supply and demand from working to use the big grain crop to rebuild herds and flocks.

Mr. McConnell said that under a free market the immediate trend would be for the production of more broilers, larger fall farrowings of pigs, and a decrease in the sale of young heifers and milk cows.

"The present situation is an about-face from a three-year trend that has seen our cattle numbers drop 10 per cent, poultry 20 per cent, and hogs by one-third," McConnell said. "A big change has occurred during the past 30 days when we switched from a position on July 1 of having the smallest grain carry-over since 1937—the year following the devastating drought—in one where, if nothing happens to the corn crop, we have more than a ton of grain in sight per animal unit for the new feeding year. This is the largest amount in history."

He pointed out that the bumper grain crop is already being felt in the market and that the drop in grain and by-product prices during July was the largest in history for that month since the deflation of 1920.

Government figures estimate a corn crop of 3,329,000,000 bushels, the largest on record; an oat crop of 1,429,000,000 bushels, and a wheat crop of 1,242,000,000 bushels both the second largest on record.

As Pegler Sees It

Henry Wallace's New York following are immigrants from territory now Russian. We get a very high proportion of traitors and seditionists among immigrants admitted to refuge with us.

Leon Josephson, now doing a year in a Federal prison for contempt of Congress, is a Communist who enjoyed all the advantages and protection of American residence and citizenship. He abused that citizenship and betrayed that country to travel abroad as a spy against the Nazis, not in the interest of the United States but exclusively in the interest of Soviet Russia. The Elzers, Gerhard and Hanns, the latter a political protégé of Eleanor Roosevelt, were refugee conspirators who came here for safety. They would have stabbed the United States in the back, and tried.

Representatives. Among other startling things, some of them shocking in their brutal discrimination against certain groups of persecuted Europeans under Hitler, Long said that in the period from 1933 to 1939, "We had admitted as refugees from persecution in Germany, Austria and other places several hundred thousand of these people."

Now who were the persecuted Europeans, then? They were not Catholics or Protestants because Hitler treated those people comparatively well.

Recently there has risen a clamor for the admission of a special quota of needle workers. Such dishonesty will not make for mutual respect and confidence within the United States. We don't need needle workers more urgently than other kinds of workers. But the workers in lines which are undermanned are trying to exclude skilled immigrants to protect their own high wages.

Are Held for Smuggling

Philadelphia, Aug. 5 (AP)—A blonde, 35-year-old Philadelphia woman and her ex-husband were held today on charges of smuggling a $75,000 74-carat emerald into this country from Sweden.

Mrs. Louise Branigan denied at a hearing before U. S. Commissioner E. Allen Doty yesterday having any knowledge of the gem. Both she and her former husband, Byron E. Charlesworth, a sea captain, were held in $2,500 bail.

for court. The whereabouts of the jewel remained a deep mystery at the hearing, with federal customs agents acknowledging they had been unable to locate it.

Driver Pleads Innocent

In city court today Patrick L. Brennan, 43, of 3806 Bailey avenue, New York, pleaded innocent of a charge of driving while intoxicated and his case was adjourned until Monday. Police reported Brennan was arrested on that charge at 8:15 p. m. Wednesday after the automobile he was driving struck and damaged the left running board of a delivery truck parked at the curb on Broadway near Henry street. Arrested at the same time was Mrs. Mary Brennan, 33, of the same address, who was charged with public intoxication. In city court today Judge Matthew V. Cahill gave Mrs. Brennan a suspended sentence. The truck which was damaged is owned by Lawrence Mitchell of New York, police said.

Chronic Disease . . .

chronic disease on the increase, it is felt that within the near future the local problem will become even more critical.

A report on the care of chronic diseases in Ulster county reveals that except for tuberculosis, there are few provisions being made for the care of chronic disease in hospitals in Ulster county. The bulk of the chronic disease cases are now being cared for in 10 private nursing homes located in Ulster county. Most of these are located in the City of Kingston. Two are in the Village of Saugerties and others are located in Ellenville and New Paltz. The Welfare Department at present has 142 patients hospitalized in these nursing homes.

The cost of care for the patients in nursing homes is assumed by the County of Ulster with 80 per cent state aid reimbursement. Since there are 142 patients so hospitalized as welfare charges, the County of Ulster spends about $150,000 per year for these patients and receives back about $120,000 from the State Welfare Department as state aid.

The State Health Department has estimated that there should be about two hospital beds per thousand population set aside for chronic disease. This means that for Ulster county there should be a minimum of about 190 to 200 beds. Considering the high proportion of older individuals in this county, it is very likely that over 250 beds would be required.

Utilization of the City Home is expected to be among the topics discussed at Friday's meeting. The present City Home has 42 inmates who could be removed to the county home at New Paltz. With this change, the City Home with a minimum of correction could be used as a chronic disease hospital accommodating up to 90 patients.

The matter of participating in the 80 per cent state aid and the formation of a non-profit voluntary group for the development of the hospital also will be discussed. From the number of affirmative replies to invitations to attend the meeting, there will be a large attendance at the meeting.

Measures Are Condemned

Geneva, Aug. 5 (AP)—The United Nations Economic and Social Council today condemned all legal measures against mixed marriages. The council's committee on human rights approved, 12 to 0, with six abstentions, a Canadian compromise between conflicting Chilean and Soviet proposals. Since the committee has the same membership as the council, later approval of the Canadian resolution by the council is considered certain.

Worked Six Months

San Bernardino, Calif., Aug. 5 (AP)—Mrs. Roland M. Vallet told police that her husband had been working in their garage on something. She said he refused to tell her what it was except that it was "important." Vallet, 61, was killed yesterday by a home-made cannon, the "something" he had been working on for so long. Police said he left a note complaining of ill health.

$500 to $5,000 plus jail sentences—usually suspended on the condition that restitution is made to the complaining veteran.

Housing and justice officials say the most common complaints are for failure to follow specifications and for charges exceeding the limit set by the Federal Housing Authority. There have been numerous complaints about demands for "side payments."

A sample complaint was against a contractor who, was charged with omitting one full room from the houses he built; another involved reduction in width specifications so that additional homes could be squeezed into the same row.

The attorney general's office has said that in many of these cases, unless a proper adjustment is made with the veteran voluntarily, the district attorney may charge the offender with fraud against the government, since the government guarantees the financing.

The office of the housing expediter, which had only about 15 compliance officers up to a month ago, says it plans to hire about 300 more for "a greatly accelerated program on compliance."

Novena at St. Mary's

The annual novena preceding the feast of the Assumption will start in St. Mary's Church Friday and continue through August 14. There will be Masses each morning at 7 and 9 a. m., except on the first Friday when they are to be held at 6, 7 and 8, and evening devotions at 7:30 o'clock.

FUNERALS OF VETERANS

The following letter is a composite of a half dozen sent me within the week: "I married a war widow. Her ex-mother-in-law is having the son's body brought to this country for burial here. (1) Should I go to the funeral? (2) If so, alone or possibly with his family? Should I be with her in either case? (3) Also, what about our sending flowers? From my wife or both of us? (4) Would the fact that I had not known her first husband alter your answers? (5) Also, my wife and her former mother-in-law would like to know about the clothes most suitable for them at the funeral services. Neither one ever wore real mourning clothes."

(1) Yes. (2) This depends upon your, as well as her, relationship with his family. (3) Yes, from her alone. (4) No, but the relationship between you and his family does matter. (5) Merely simple, dark dresses.

Showers Not Recent Idea

Dear Mrs. Post: Thirty-five years ago a group of friends gave me a bridal shower. Notwithstanding a group of present friends insist that showers were not the general custom back in those days. Possibly a statement from you will convince them.

Answer: Showers have been given by friendly people as long as most of us can remember. I do agree, however, that the custom never was as widespread as it is today nor as overdone as when asking those who scarcely know the guest of honor.

has a stepfather for only a short time—her mother having been a widow for 15 years—shouldn't one of the paternal uncles give her away at her wedding rather than her stepfather?

Answer: This is entirely a question of her own feelings. She asks the person she cares for most, whether he be uncle or stepfather.

Don't Say, "Huh!"
Dear Mrs. Post: What is the polite thing to say when you have to ask someone to repeat what they've just said because you didn't hear?

Answer: "I'm sorry, I didn't hear" is both polite and accurate.

How to give a wedding anniversary party—the invitation, appropriate gift and type of entertainment — is included in Mrs. Post's leaflet, E-7. To obtain a copy, send 5 cents in coin and a stamped self-addressed envelope to her, in care of the Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y. Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail.

Testimony Is Given

New York, Aug. 5 (AP)—Testimony was given yesterday at a Department of Sanitation hearing on complaint of dumping practices by the city of Mt. Vernon, on a site near Eastchester creek in the Wakefield section of the Bronx. Mt. Vernon has been filling in the site, covering approximately 12 city blocks, under New York city permit, since October, 1940. The permit was suspended last July 26 pending hearing on the complaint to determine whether it should be revoked.

Art League Shows Works of Local Painter in Gallery

Woodstock, Aug. 5—The second half of the summer sessions at the Art Students League began this week and will continue through August and September. Instructors in the morning classes are Philip Guston and John W. Taylor, life drawing, painting and composition, and Nathaniel Katz, sculpture. During the afternoon classes, Sigmund Menkes and Karl E. Fortess will instruct in life drawing, painting and composition.

In the gallery during August may be seen representative work of Woodstock residents who are members of the league. The exhibition includes landscapes, portraits, still lifes, nudes, and sculpture. There is a great deal of variety in this show which includes many works of a modern trend.

The contributors are Ethel Leventhal, Ukule Abstraction; John Bentley, Old Woodstock; Violet Segmund, Head; Anna

Carroll, Nude; Florence Webster, Old Shady Glass Barns; Margaret Lowengrund, Clambake; Mark Vukovic, Windy Creek; William Eisler, Still Life; Florine Kensie, Interior; Harry Teddie, Ceres; Alfred, Hermann, Tiger; Liffes, Puggy Maguire, Interior; Edna Tharber, Old Woodstock; Rollin Crampton, No Title; Eugene Ludins, Demonstration; Hannah Small, bluestone figure; Nahum Tschachasov, Nahum, Introverted Clown; Jessie Slagg, Maria Bronze; Josephine Barnard, Glasgow on Hudson; Morris Klein, Port of Town; Florence Cramer, Up Street; Aileen Cramer, Factory Girl; Peggy Dodds, Blue Hens; Samuel Sigaloff, City; Jo Cantine, Nleanor; Mary Parley, The Inlet; Mark Friedman, Preening; Natalie Tepper, Winter in Manhattan; Rosella Hartman, Figures; Zulma Parker, Puerto Rico; Lois Wilcox, Equipoise; Dorothy Varian, Color Composition; Wilna Hervey, Children's Art Class; Lucile Blanch, Student; Norbert Heermann, Eva; Joseph Poller, Doris Cross, The Jew; Fritz Abadi, The Mermaid; Mercy Ann Hillman, My Neighbors; Judson Smith, Configuration; Austin Mocklein, Polymorphic; Helen Shotwell, Nude; Phoebe Towbin, Troopers; Alfred Hatty, A Southern Villa; Julia Leyscraft, Tempel Mills; Robert Carlson, Hope; Mollie Higgins Smith, Betty, and Ann Leyscraft, Life Study. League students and professional artists are included in the exhibition.

Enrollment at the league for the first half of the summer session is greater than last year and it is expected that more students will come in later this month.

17 Artists Have Rooms At Local Studio Room
Woodstock, Aug. 5—Several of the artists selected for the first show in Deane's Studio Room have also been chosen to exhibit during this second show which opened on Tuesday. Yasuo Kuniyoshi and Karl Fortess judged the work submitted.

Fifteen painters and two sculptors are represented and include Ethel and Jenny Magafan, Rosella Hartman, Vi Sigmund, Frances Stein, Denny Winters, Harry Teddie, Rollin Crampton, Margaret Lowengrund, Anna Carolan, John Franklin, Peggy Dodds, Howard Mandell, F. Ballin Cramer and Joseph Presser. Paul Flene and Nathaniel Katz are the sculptors.

Each month a new jury is named and is responsible for the selection of the paintings which are hung for one month.

Legion Auxiliary Bazaar August 11

Woodstock, Aug. 5—The ever-industrious ladies of the American Legion Auxiliary are now busily engaged in preparatory work for the cafeteria supper and bazaar which will be held on Wednesday, August 11, beginning at 5:30 p. m. on the lawn of the Legion building.

Chairmen for this event are Mrs. Aaron R. Hasbrouck, Mesdames Woestendiek, Lawrence Ryan, William Kippel, Harry Kutzschbach, Fennel Franklin, John Peacock, Joseph Wagner, Clayton Harder, and Miss Florence Peper.

At a special meeting of the fair committees on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Kippel, it was learned that the Woodstock Unit of the Legion Auxiliary was presented with state and national citations for outstanding work in membership. The citations were made at the Ulster county meeting of the Auxiliary in Kingston on July 29.

Another citation received and of which the unit is justly proud is the cancer cradle fund citation given in recognition of the Woodstock Unit's interest in needy children afflicted with cancer and the contribution by its entire membership in support of the cause.

Four Favorites to Play In Sunday Concert

Woodstock, Aug. 5—The four distinguished musicians who always perform for a capacity audience at the Maverick Concert Hall will be heard on Sunday afternoon, at 4 o'clock. They are Leon Barzin, violinist; Inez Carroll, pianist; Cynthia Eddy, cellist and William Kroll, violinist.

The program for next Sunday will include Beethoven's No. 4, Opus 11, in B Flat Major for Piano Violin, and Cello; Debussy, Sonata for Violin and Piano; and Brahms Piano Quartet, Opus 25 in G Minor for piano, violin, viola and cello.

Paintings to be exhibited will represent the work of Carolyn Haeblerlin.

Artists Association Has Presentation Show

Woodstock, Aug. 5—The Presentation Show of the Woodstock Artists Association will be opened on Friday afternoon at 4:30 when a reception will be held. The public is cordially invited to attend this exhibition which will introduce a group of painters and sculptors, too little known. Each exhibitor will be represented by several examples of his work and has been invited to show by the executive board.

The show will continue at the Woodstock Art Gallery until August 17.

Subway Fare Remains Stable

Moscow (AP)—A ride on the Moscow subway no matter from where to where costs seven and one-half cents. The fare was set some years ago and has remained without change for a considerable period. It comes to forty kopecks which is to say forty one-hundredths of one ruble. The ruble is pegged at 5.30 rubles per one American dollar. Some other forms of Moscow municipal transport are cheaper. The street car, for instance, costs less than four cents. To ride on a trolleybus one must pay according to distance. Taxis are now on the streets again after an absence during much of the war. They cost about 35 cents for six tenths of a mile.

American Legion Nine Eliminated by Amsterdam Post, 7 to 5

Wildness Costs Locals Several Runs in Zone Game

The Kingston Legion nine walked itself right out of the New York State American Legion tournament in Gloversville last night when Amsterdam Post combined two hits with eight walks and three errors to whip the Old Capital 7 to 5 in the zone opener.

Pete Broukous gave up only two hits in five innings but walked eight and jammed five of the free tickets in the first frame when Amsterdam scored four times. Kingston made eight hits off Mrookowski who wasn't as hard to solve as his name and made their biggest bid in the fifth when Mike Rienzo's double chased across three runs.

Walker figured in both Amsterdam rallies in the first and fourth innings.

Rienzo and Leonard each made two hits for Kingston. Dzikowicz, first baseman, was credited with both of the Amsterdam safeties, a single and double.

BATTING—Ron Northey, Cardinals. Drove in all three runs as the Cardinals defeated the New York Giants 3-0 in the second game of an afternoon-night double header. The Cards also won the opener 7-2.

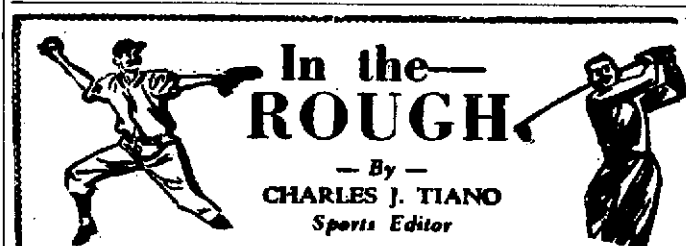

PITCHING—Harry Brecheen, Cardinals. Pitched a two-hitter in shutting out the Giants, 3-0.

Sure, Sis

Bob Metesh, left, talks things over with his sister and battery-mate, Bernice. Only girl on the team, 19-year-old Bernice is a starting pitcher for semi-professional St. Joseph's club of Joliet, Ill.

Boulevards, Win 5 to 2; Tie for League Lead

Bagatelles:

Joe Kania's pitching is one of the few bright spots in an otherwise drab week for the Colonials. . . . Joe had a no-hitter going for five innings against Port Chester and twirled 13 consecutive scoreless frames in the two-night doubleheader. . . . The Durocher influence on the Giants is even cropping up in the schedules. . . . Notice that day-night doubleheader yesterday. . . . Or was that just an "emergency of the schedule." . . . Pittsburgh Pirates lopping their farm club setup from 19 teams to 12. . . . It could be a trend. . . . Those cinema Argentine gauchos can be funny creatures at times, but that was no pack of basketball clowns Argentine sent against the cream of the United States crop to lose by only 59-57. . . . Brethren, if the Argentine club had won that Olympic game, you could have written it off as the greatest sports upset of all time.

Flotsam and Jetsam:

Ed Wiederspiel is the dynamo behind the Town of Olive Chamber of Commerce night Saturday at municipal stadium. . . . Ed promises a delegation of 300 strong and has lined up prizes for five field events—home run hitting, fungo batting, throwing into the barrel, accuracy throwing and the blind fold act. . . . The blind fold act, in the process of construction and "Red" Sang's Central Reds ready, able and willing to go, local team captains and league officials will have some ticklish decisions to make at the annual conclave about to be called. . . . We hope nobody gets hurt. . . . Independent Bowling League is the first to announce organizational plans, with a meeting scheduled on Wednesday, Aug. 13 at the Y.M.C.A. at 8 p. m. . . . Johnny McLean won the Newburgh News' annual hole-in-one tournament by landing 3 feet 6 1/2 inches from the pin. . . . Kingston's delegation to the Telegram Hole-In-One (for acers only), at Leewood Country Club—Alex Goralak, Jim Dwyer, Herm Gottfried and Burt Haver—failed to hit the birdie circle.

Of Men and Mice:

Sid Shalit nifty: Bar rooms are coining a mint with television of boxing, but video could make a fortune covering some of those bar room brawls. . . . On second thought, they would be a welcome relief from the hectic menu of recent months. . . . With two bowling alleys in the process of construction and "Red" Sang's Central Reds ready, able and willing to go, local team captains and league officials will have some ticklish decisions to make at the annual conclave about to be called. . . . We hope nobody gets hurt. . . . Independent Bowling League is the first to announce organizational plans, with a meeting scheduled on Wednesday, Aug. 13 at the Y.M.C.A. at 8 p. m. . . . Johnny McLean won the Newburgh News' annual hole-in-one tournament by landing 3 feet 6 1/2 inches from the pin. . . . Kingston's delegation to the Telegram Hole-In-One (for acers only), at Leewood Country Club—Alex Goralak, Jim Dwyer, Herm Gottfried and Burt Haver—failed to hit the birdie circle.

Feller's Memory Short:

Bob Feller may be unpopular with some, but he won't starve. He can always munch on those words he wrote on Page 91 of his book, "Strikeout Story," when, in referring to the All-Star game of 1937, he wrote: "Dizzy Dean was the losing pitcher, and this didn't shock me nearly as much as the row which preceded the game. Dean announced that he would not appear in the game and finally was ordered to do so by Judge Landis. . . . I couldn't imagine anyone not wanting to participate, and my own All-Star games have been a special kind of enjoyment. . . ." Well, we guess the All-Star honeymoon must be over for Bob.

Satchel Paige story by Dizzy Dean. . . . The Great Dean relating one of his pitching battles with Satchel Paige in 1935 said: "It was 0-0 in the late innings and I led off with a triple on a short pop fly over first. Satchel looked at me and said, 'Thass where you is, Mr. Diz, and thass where you gonna stay,' and then he struck out the next three men. . . ."

MULLIGAN MIKE SAYS: A freshman U.S. Senator remarks he intends to listen a lot and talk little. Doubtless, a worthy example to set his seasoned colleagues, though may be a trifle presumptuous.

Barron's 136 Leads Shanter

Chicago, Aug. 5 (AP)—Herman Barron of White Plains, N. Y., the 1946 champion, today led the Tam O'Shanter pro field into the third round of the $5,000 scramble for first prize after posting a pair of 68's for 136—eight under par.

Barron, competing in his fifth big tournament of the year, surged into the lead yesterday with a 33-35—68.

One stroke behind was the first round leader, Ralph Guldahl of Chicago who required a 36-37—73 for a halfway total of 137.

Colonials Drop Two, Lose Seventh Straight

Clippers Extend Streak to Six

The Kingston Colonials dropped to within a hair's breadth of the Colonial League cellar last night in Port Chester when they dropped a doubleheader to the Port Chester Clippers 1-0, and 7-4. These setbacks made it seven straight losses for the Kingston club who managed to break a string of 34 consecutive scoreless innings in the fifth frame of the second game.

Mahlon "Red" Turner pitched well enough to win an ordinary game in the curtain raiser last night but his teammates couldn't provide him with any runs so the Colonials went down to defeat amidst their third straight shut-out. The contest, scheduled for seven innings, went into overtime as Turner and Larry Cauvel waged one of the best pitchers' battles seen this year. Each man allowed but four hits but Turner allowed one run in the ninth inning which brought about his downfall.

Gary Rutkay, leadoff man in that ninth frame, belted a line drive single into centerfield but the ball took a bad hop over the head of Johnny Elenchin and rolled to the fence. Rutkay pulling up at second with a double. Turner bore down and got Barillari to ground out to short but Johnny Miggins lifted a bloop into short right field which brought Rutkay home with the winning run.

Kingston had several chances to score in the game but the Colonials, paralyzed by a serious batting slump, were unable to deliver in the clutch.

Manager Ed Kobesky surprised the crowd in the second game when he took the mound in a seemingly lost cause. The Clippers belted starter Gene Saragness out of there with a five-run barrage in the first inning before the youthful finger could get anybody out. Kobesky turned in a first rate performance allowing only two runs and seven hits but it was all in a losing cause.

A triple by Joe Mellindick with two men on was the big blow in that opening frame which saw the Clippers hit everything that Saragness threw. This big rally in itself was enough to win for Port Chester but the league-leaders picked up two more tallies off Kobesky to assure lefty Paul Wargo of his eleventh victory.

The Colonials gave Wargo a scare in the fifth inning when singles by McNamara, Ferony and Cashion, and a double by Goldsmith sent three runs across the plate before a man could be retired. However, Wargo settled down and struck out the side, and although Kingston touched him for another tally in the eighth, the Clipper southpaw ace was in no serious trouble after that.

The second place Poughkeepsie Chief stayed two games behind by sweeping a twin bill from Bridgeport, 5-2 and 3-1. Waterbury, with the help of five Stamford errors, beat the last place Pioneers, 9 to 2.

Swimming Hard Work
San Antonio, Tex.—If you think competitive swimming is all fun and games, try it at the University of Texas free-style and team captain, Jim is attending summer school at St. Mary's University here so he will be able to graduate at Texas next spring.

During the summer he limits himself to a mere one and one-half miles of swimming per day. That requires an hour and a half. When he's in competition Jim splashes two and one-half miles per day.

Blackie Beat 'Em All
Cincinnati (AP)—Ewell Blackwell's 16-game winning streak last season was compiled at the expense of every team in the National League. The Cincinnati Reds' ace beat each club at least once while turning in an amazing earned run average of 1.40 before being stopped July 30 by the New York Giants in a 10-inning affair.

Plenty of Hunters

Finns' Distance Superiority Shattered in 1948 Olympics

By TED SMITS
Olympic Stadium, Wembley, England, Aug. 5 (AP)—The 1948 Olympic Games mark the end of Finland's domination of distance running, started by Paavo Nurmi in 1924.

Today only two long races remain in which Finland can hope for victory—the marathon to be run on Saturday, and the 3,000 meter steeplechase this afternoon. The 1,500 is still to be decided but Finland isn't given a chance of winning it.

Finland's fading has been in marked contrast to the steady, victorious march of American athletes.

16 Wins for U.S.
With 16 out of 24 events in men's track completed, the United States now holds eight individual championships.

In unofficial points the team leaders are: U.S. 156, Sweden 44, Finland 23, Australia 22, Norway 17, Italy 16, Hungary 15, France 15, Czechoslovakia 15, Great Britain 12, and Belgium 11.

A Belgian, Gaston Reiff, took the 5,000 meter title Finland won in the previous four games. A Czechoslovakian, Emil Zatopek, took the 10,000 that Finland had won five of the last six times.

Strand Ready
Now comes a Swede, Lennart Strand, ready to win the 1,500 meters tomorrow. Finland won the 1,500 two of the last four times.

Strand, a small, delicate, pale skinned runner who hunched along, showed his class yesterday when he won his 1,500 meter heat in 3:54.2. One American managed to reach the finals, Don Gehrmann of Wisconsin, a good third in Strand's heat.

Two Swedes and a Dutchman, Willie Sijthuis, won the other 1,500 heats. The Finns' lone qualifier was third in his heat.

Berwanger First Drafted
New York (AP)—The first player to be drafted by the teams of the National Pro Football League when that circuit began the draft system of choosing players in 1936 was Jay Berwanger, the great All-America back from the University of Chicago. Berwanger was chosen by the Philadelphia Eagles.

Hey, Deer, That's No Fawn

Mary Alice Miller, 19 months-old and very brave, started to feed a gramin cracker to a fawn that wandered into Grand Rapids, Minn., from nearby woods. The animal nuzzled her, as a gesture of thanks, but Mary Alice interpreted it differently. She didn't like it one bit!

Inflation Bill Passes

Washington, Aug. 5 (AP)—The House passed today a Republican anti-inflation bill after blocking any consideration of President Truman's limited price, rationing and wage control program.

The vote was 264 to 97, or 23 more than two-thirds necessary for passage under a suspension of the rules that limited debate to 40 minutes and barred all amendments to the G.O.P. measure.

Just before its passage, President Truman assailed the bill as "feeble compromises" in the fight against inflation, and some Democrats predicted a prompt veto.

The bill was sent to the Senate, under a topsped G.O.P. time table that aims at adjourning the special session of Congress Saturday night.

Maverick Does Well in Antigone

Woodstock, Aug. 5—During his life span, in 400 B. C., Sophocles, Athenian dramatist, one of the three greatest Greek tragedians, wrote "Antigone." A modern adaptation by 24-year-old Bob Guest was presented at the Maverick Summer Theatre Wednesday evening as "A Theatrical Production," a new experimental play, which will continue through Sunday evening.

The Maverick players in their first experimental production of the season made a tremendous impression on their large and attentive audience.

Everyone in the cast had a real feeling for the role being portrayed. Helen Bernstein gave a very able performance as Antigone. Throughout her interpretation, Miss Bernstein displayed a fine understanding of one to whom duty and loyalty for one's brother was more important than the loss of her own life.

Russ Bernhardt capably depicted Creon, the Greek ruler whose every thought was for the good of his country. There were no exception to the edicts issued by him.

Commendable, too, is the convincing job Roy Graves does as Haemon, son of Creon, whose love for Antigone knows no bounds.

Those in the supporting roles contributed much to the success of the production. They were Katherine Guilford as Eurydice; Patty Gilmore, Ismene; Allen

Brown, guard; and the narrator, Richard Williams.
Judith Small, the 14-year-old leading lady of Swoon Fever, designed and made the Greek costumes for the feminine roles and author Bob Guest directed the play.

PAY AS YOU RIDE

A small down payment and 8 monthly payments buys auto insurance. If you want credit. You need insurance to avoid trouble and possible loss of your driver's license.

For $5.00 you can buy $1,100 fire insurance on furniture in a dwelling in Kingston for 3 years. The policy also covers up to $110 in any place outside the home.

What if someone falls on your sidewalk or is injured on your premises? $5 a year insures a private home against such claims.

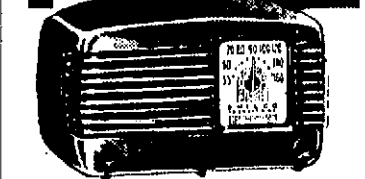

Plate glass insurance does not cost much. Ask for an estimate.

Ask how my monthly payment plan helps a small business man to easily pay for his insurance premiums.
